ASIP Participates in Job Fairs at Jordanian Universities

AMMAN - The Arab Society for Intellectual Property (ASIP), a member of Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Foundation (TAG Foundation), took part in the Career Days organized by the Applied Science Private University, Al-Ahliyya Amman University and Al-Zaytoonah University. Through such participation, ASIP aims at briefing the attendees on its services and training courses that qualify graduates and job seekers, develop their capabilities and improve their chances of getting jobs that meet their skills and aspirations. The Career Days also provided the chance of direct contact between employers and job seekers that in return provided the youth with an outlook about the latest available job vacancies and trends in the labor market.

ASIP's participation played a positive role in helping job seekers get the looked-for jobs.

ASIP Holds E-Crimes Training Course

AMMAN - The Arab Society for Intellectual Property (ASIP) held the 'E- Crimes' training course, March 31- April 4, 2019 at Talal Abu-Ghazaleh University College for Innovation (TAGUCI) Building - Amman. The 15-hours training course included different topics clarifying the concept and types of E-crimes, namely:

- The electronic environment vs. traditional environment
- Crimes in general
- Types of cybercrimes
- Penalties for cybercrimes

Upon the completion of the course, the participants received Certificates of Attendance issued by the ASIP.

AGIP Receives MIP's Middle East IP Firm of the Year Award for 2019

LONDON - Abu-Ghazaleh Intellectual Property (AGIP) was awarded 'Middle East IP Firm of the Year 2019' at the Managing Intellectual Property (MIP) Annual IP Awards Ceremony held at the Royal Lancaster Hotel, London, in March 2019.

The MIP Awards recognize achievements in IP work over the past year in areas such as prosecution, litigation, licensing or other works. According to survey results released recently, AGIP was ranked in Tier One for trademark, patent and copyright prosecution in all Arab countries.

This is the 10th year that AGIP earns regional recognition for its outstanding IP practices in the Middle East and for its continuous efforts in providing its clients with the best-quality services in the field of IP protection.

Ms. Dima Naber, AGIP Counsel and International Business Development Executive Director, received the award on behalf of AGIP, saying: "We are very proud to receive this prestigious award, which we consider as a testament to the dedication and innovative approaches of AGIP to deliver above and beyond expectations."

"Over the years, AGIP has reached greater levels of success, and our clients have trusted us with the quality of IP services. This award recognizes their confidence and loyalty in our services," she added.

Managing Intellectual Property hosted the Annual IP Awards 2019 in front of nearly 380 IP professionals, representing 40 countries, 80 private practice firms, and including about 90 corporate/in-house practitioners.

It is worth mentioning that the MIP's 2019 survey is the largest ever, covering 75 jurisdictions, and its results are based on extensive research and interviews with practitioners worldwide.
