The 12-hour training course will introduce participants to different topics that explain the concept and types of innovation and economic growth, namely:

• Discussions of the Theoretical and Practical Background of Intellectual Property Rights (IPRs).

• Innovation and Globalization.

• How could Innovation Lead to Economic Growth?

• The Innovation Process and the Role of IPRs.

• National Innovation and IPR Systems: Their Role in Economic Development (Practical examples).

It is worth mentioning that the Arab Society for Intellectual Property (ASIP) is a non-profit organization founded on February 23, 1987, in Munich, Germany, by leading practitioners in different fields of Intellectual Property in the Arab region, under the chairmanship of HE Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh. Its mission is to gather IP professionals and practitioners in the Arab region and help raise awareness and enhance understanding of Intellectual Property issues and dynamics.
Libya’s National Planning Council Honored Dr. Talal Abu Ghazaleh with “First-class Shield of Giving”

AMMAN - Libya’s National Planning Council awarded HE Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh, founder and chairman of Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Global (TAG. Global), the First-class Shield of Giving, that was presented by the Council’s Chairman, HE Dr. Muftah Al-Harir.

Dr. Al-Harir stated that the honoring comes in recognition of Dr. Abu-Ghazaleh’s contribution to the preparation of studies that identify the objectives, policies, and strategies of economic and social development in Libya, as well as the investment in natural, human and financial resources and potentials to maximize their benefit.

Dr. Al-Harir expressed his pride in the trust and support provided by Dr. Abu-Ghazaleh, referring to the deep-rooted brotherly relations between the Libyan and Jordanian peoples. He also stressed that Libya highly commends cooperation between the Jordanian academic and scientific institutions with their Libyan counterparts, which embodies the participatory concept of supporting the youth who represent hope for positive change in their countries.

For his part, Dr. Abu-Ghazaleh expressed his gratitude and appreciation for receiving such an honor, stating that TAG.Global’s contribution through its expertise and services to Libya’s development is an ‘Arab and national duty’.

He affirmed that the Organization spares no efforts to help the Libyan people overcome the challenges and obstacles the educational and economic systems, as well as the business environment Libya are facing.

Dr. Abu-Ghazaleh, further, emphasized TAG.Global’s keenness to cooperate with all Libyan institutions to contribute to the development of national programs that serve all segments of society, in addition to strengthening cooperation with the Council as a partner in addressing various challenges.
Launch of ‘Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Award for Innovation’ in Lebanon

BEIRUT – Under the patronage of HE Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh, founder and chairman of Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Global (TAG.Global); Chairman of the Founding Council of the Board of Trustees of the Middle East and North Africa Alliance for Educational Technology (MENA EdTech Alliance), the EdTech Syndicate of Lebanon organized its first annual meeting to launch its programs and action plan for the next two years. The ceremony was attended by the Founder and CEO of MENA EdTech Alliance, and the MENA EdTech Alliance President, Dr. Rabie Baalbaki, in addition to a host of high-level dignitaries in the fields of education and technology.

During the meeting, the Syndicate President, Mr. Baalbaki, launched an annual ‘Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Award for Innovation’ in recognition of Dr. Abu-Ghazaleh’s support for youth and education in the Arab region. He expressed appreciation for Dr. Abu-Ghazaleh’s great efforts in supporting the youth, especially in the area of innovation and digital transformation, in addition to the establishment of TAG Global Knowledge Stations in Lebanon to help eradicate digital illiteracy.

For his part, Dr. Abu-Ghazaleh expressed his pleasure for being surrounded by a group of intellectuals, educationalists, and innovators, pointing to the important role the EdTech Syndicate plays in the country. He, further, noted that cooperation and partnership with the Syndicate would create Arab and international prospects as well as producing significant results in spreading digital culture and promoting technical skills in education and innovation.

Dr. Abu-Ghazaleh referred to his life journey right from the beginning; where he studied in Lebanon, overcame all challenges through technology and knowledge turning them into opportunities. He affirmed that he embraces the Syndicate’s goals and would strive through the knowledge stations to eradicate digital illiteracy, discover innovators and open horizons of national and international work and production. In conclusion, Dr. Abu-Ghazaleh stated that the Lebanese youth need to be equipped with advanced digital skills to stand out and become self-confident and totally independent.
